Name and headquarters

Article 1

The International EcorisQ Association (ecorisQ) is a non-profit Association governed by the present statutes and, secondarily, by Articles 60 et seq. of the Swiss Civil Code. It is neutral politically, and non-denominational.

Article 2

The administrative seat of the association is in Zollikofen (BE), Switzerland. For its public address, the association uses a P.O. Box in Geneva. The Association shall be of unlimited duration.

Purpose

Article 3

The Association shall pursue the following aim:

- To promote sustainable protection against natural hazard risks by bringing together science and practice for the development and dissemination of transparent tools for natural hazard and risk analyses.

Its key activities are:

- creating and governing an international network on natural hazard risk management
 - stimulating exchange of knowledge and dissemination of innovative transparent tools
 - initiating and participating in research, technology or development projects
 - standardising methodologies and assisting in respective international debates

Resources

Article 4

The Association's resources come from:

- donations;
- legacies;
- private and public subsidies;
- membership fees;
- any other resources authorized by the law.

The funds shall be used in conformity with the Association's aims.

STATUTES OF THE INTERNATIONAL ECORISQ ASSOCIATION

Members

Article 5

The Association comprises:

- individual members: students or all physical persons that are not professionally active in the field of natural hazard risks, eco-engineering or protection forest management. All individual members pay the membership fee fixed by the General Assembly. Individual members only have a consultative vote in the Association.
- collective members: professional moral persons (companies, governmental agencies, schools/universities, research institutes, NGOs, etc.). All collective members pay the membership fee fixed by the General Assembly.
- honorary members: persons who, by their actions and commitments, have rendered outstanding services to the Association. They are exempt from membership fees.

Requests to become a member must be addressed to the board. The board admits new members and informs the General Assembly accordingly.

Membership ceases:

- on death
- by written resignation notified to the board at least six months before the end of the financial year
- by exclusion ordered by the board, for just cause, with a right of appeal to the General Assembly. Appeals must be lodged within 30 days of the board's decision being notified
- for non-payment of dues for more than one year.

In all cases the membership fee for the current year remains due. Members who have resigned or who are excluded have no rights to any part of the Association's assets.

Only the assets of the Association may be used to meet commitments. Members have no individual responsibility.

Organs

Article 6

The Association's organs are:

- The General Assembly,
- The Board,
- The Auditor.
